Senator Smith, of Oregon.

We have already announced that Delazon Smith, (formerly denominated among politicians "Delusion" Smith) had been elected one of the U. S. Senators from Oregon, which by the way, has not yet been admitted as one of the States of the Union. The Rochester (N. Y.) Union speaking of the Senator elect, remarks: Mr. Smith was once and for some time a resident of this city. We think he left here since 1840, about which time he conducted a daily paper called the Western Herald .-Previously he published for a year or two, an infidel paper called the New York Watchman, and he used to lecture to the "Free Inquirers" on Sundays. Soon after leaving this city he was converted to Christianity, and was at one time a preacher of the Gospel at the West. He is a gentleman of considerable Virginia Bonds. The New York Journal of Commerce says :-"The State of Virginia, under date of March 22d, 1836, issued a certain amount of six cent bonds "irredeemable for twenty years from the 22d day of June, 1837, and afterwards to be redeemed at the pleasure of the General Assembly." It was supposed that the State would have such a regard for its own credit that provision would be made for a par redemption of the bonds after the twenty years had expired, but this seems not to have been done. Recently, several amounts of these bonds have been received here from Europe, under instructions to obtain, either the principal at par, or new bonds for an equal amount. If we are rightly informed, the authorities of the State of Virginia decline to accede to either of these propositions. The holder if he accept of their offer must retain the old bonds redeemable "at the pleasure of the Assembly," and therefore not readily to be negotiable, or sell them to the State, which offers for them about 90 cents to the dollar out of the sinking fund; or exchange them for new bonds by an additional payment of one w cent! Is it true that the great State of Virginia has no better proposition for her creditors than this? Has the old mother of statesmen and heroes be come a catch-penny broker, and is the Treasury of the State turned into a shaving shop? [How

By Yesterday Evening's Matis. Letter from Middleburg.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette. MIDDLEBURG, AUGUST 18th .- The whole engrossing topic with many in this region, seems to be the camp-meeting. Every morning, vehicles of various description, are to be seen plying toward the camp-ground. The attendance has been good each day since its commencement. On Sunday the attendance was very large. The best idea that can be given by me is, that the meeting, in the opinion of some of the old attenders at Loudoun Camps, is fully an average one. There are 114 tents as nearly as I could count them. Services commenced on Friday night by prayer, and 9 o'clock in the morning, preaching at 11 o'clock, at 3 and 74 o'clock, p. m. The intermediate time is occupied in prayer-meetings at various tents.

good. It is to be hoped that the committee zens for a pleasant trip and a safe return. will be fully sustained in carrying them out The number of preachers in attendance is 15. On Monday night there were some 20 persons at the mourner's bench, but the interest in the meeting seems only beginning. On Sunday morning, just as preaching was about to commence, the report of a pistol was heard not far from the circle. On repairing to the spot it was ascertained that the contents of a nistal had been lodged in the face of a negro belonging to Mrs. White, of Hillsborough. Something very mysterious seems ly, pure brandy is important. to hang about the affair, as the negro man receiving the wound, and two others sitting with him in his mistress' carriage at the time, denied, upon examination before Ludwell Luckett, esq., J. P, seeing a pistol in the hands of any one, or knowing by whom the shot was fired. From a conversation with recovery was considered doubtful. Mr. Luckett, I believe that it seems to be the impression that the accident was caused by a pistol in the hands of the negro himself.

P. S. Since writing the above, I understand that a negro man belonging to Mr. Gibson Gregg, states that at the time of the accident, the negro receiving the wound and another in Mrs. White's carriage at the time, were engaged in trading pistols. IOTA.

HAIL STORM .- We learn that on Sunday evening there was a Hail storm in Dinwiddie, about six miles South of the City, which damaged the Tobacco and corn blades. We are not informed as to the extent of injury and hope that it was not serious.

It gives us much gratification to state that in the last few days there have been copious rains in various distrets of country which were suffering severely under the drought The probability now is that with tolerably seasonable weather for a week or two, the vield of corn will be at least an average one, and that the Tobacco fields will turn out fairly as to quantity .- Petersburg Int.

A SHAMEFUL TRICK .- A few days since some person at the Red Sulphur Springs, Va., amused himself by slipping notes under the doors of visitors stating that the typhoid fever had "broken out" there. The trick and Marine Aquaria, or "River and Ocean Garcaused a stampede among the more nervous, and a general circulation of the report that typhoid fever existed at that watering place. From 200 visitors the number was reduced to 40. A letter from there says, however, that the panic is over, and about 80 of the visitors have returned. No clue has been ascertained to the identity of the joker .-- Richmond Dispatch.

EXTRAORDINARY LONGEVITY .- There is a very remarkable case of longevity in one family in Nelson county. There are five PAL.—The duties of this Academy will be remarried sisters whose aggregate ages amount to 434 years-on the 1st of January last the eldest was 93; the second 91, the third 88, the fourth 82 and the fifth 80.

DOVER, N. H., Feb. 2d, 1857.—Prof. O. J. WOOD & CO .- GENTS: Within a few days we have received so many orders and calls for Prof. O. J. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, that to-day we were compelled to send to Boston for a quantity, (the 6 dozen you forwarded all being sold) while we might order a quantity from you. Every bottle we have sold seems to have produced three or four new customers and the approbation and patronage it receives from the most substantial and worthy citizens of our vicinity, fully convince us that it is a most valuable preparation.

Send us as soon as may be, one gross of $1

size; and one dozen $2 size; and believe us

yours very respectfully.
